Quincy Alden Myers

The Executive Board of the American Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology at the meeting in Chicago on April 10, 1922, authorized the publication of this memorial to the Honorable Quincy Alden Myers, who passed away at his home in Indianapolis on December 28, 1921.

Judge Myers had a distinguished career at the bar and on the bench. Graduated from Dartmouth College in 1875 and from the Albany Law School in 1877, he practiced law in Logansport, Ind., from 1877 to 1906. He was City Attorney from 1885 to 1887; Attorney for Cass County from 1895 to 1897 and again from 1903 to 1909. In 1900 he represented his state as Republican Presidential Elector. From 1909 to 1915 he was one of the judges of the Supreme Court of the State of Indiana. During many years he had been a trustee of De Pauw University, and he was active throughout his life in many forms of self-effacing service to the community in which he lived. He was a genial, cultivated gentleman of scholarly habits and attainments. During the year 1914 to 1915 he was the President of the American Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology and thereafter until his death he consistently maintained an active interest in the affairs of this organization and was a faithful attendant upon its exercises. We mourn his loss and offer our sympathy to his family and to his colleagues.

THE EXECUTIVE BOARD OF THE INSTITUTE OF CRIMINAL LAW AND CRIMINOLOGY.

By ROBERT H. GAULT, Secretary.
